

I currently am a student in UW Madisons Extended Campus Bootcamp. Through this experience I have gained skills in HTML, CSS, Javascript, jQuery, and many other related program, libraries and languages. I am look forward to beginning my coding career.

I am problem solver and a hard-worker and I am excited to use these skills along with my coding experience to help build the websites that you want.